

Tapping into God's Power through Prayer. The New Testament Church learned how to touch the throne of grace through prayer and transform their world. Share in the Hour of Power on Wednesdays at 6:00pm in room 362. We are looking at Jesus' last words to his followers and continuing through the chapters of Acts that reveal the prayer life of the new community.

The Final 2010 Rejebian Summer Review! July 28: A New Literary History of America presented by Rose Mary Rumbley. Take a fantastic trip through America's rich and varied cultural history, from Charles Wilson Peale to Superman. And what better guide than speaker, humorist, author, actress and historian Rose Mary Rumbley? The book covers the important, the irrelevant, and everything in between in American life, so this should be particularly good grist for the Rumbley humor mill. Dinner is at 5:30pm in the Great Hall. The review is at 7:00pm in Wesley Hall. There is no charge for the performance, and no need to make reservations for it. However, dinner is $10 and reservations for dinner are required by noon Monday before the Wednesday performance. Please call 214.523.2240 for reservations and leave your name, number of reservations, and date of the performance you are attending. This series is made possible by the generous support of the Rejebian family, and is named in memory of Ermance Rejebian, one of Dallas' great reviewers.
